

The Desert Shall Blossom

“The wilderness will rejoice and blossom. Like the crocus, it will burst into bloom; it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy.” Isaiah 35:1, 2

In the second column, state during which time period the following statements apply. For convenience, you may use the numbers. Choose between:

(1) Garden of Eden	(2) Present Earth	(3) Christ's 1000 year Reign	(4) After Christ's Reign
-----------------------	----------------------	---------------------------------	-----------------------------

In the middle of the garden was the Tree of Life. (Genesis 2:9)
Many new inventions are not being used wisely because of man's pride and greed.
And God saw all that he had made and it was very good.
So the LORD God banished Adam from the garden.
The Jews hoped Jesus would set up an earthly kingdom.
The world is in terrible turmoil even though many things are being done to save the environment.
The ground is cursed with thorns and thistles because of Adam's disobedience.
This will be a time of education.
You must not eat from the Tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for if you do, you will surely die.
You will not surely die, the serpent said to the woman.
The earth will be brought to the condition God intended when he created it.
The earth will be called paradise.
God's power will bring perfect social conditions
The blossoming of the wilderness will allow for the physical needs of the resurrected people to be met.
Everyone will live in peace and harmony.
Mankind will live forever.
There will be plenty of water for vegetation to grow.
The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox. (Isaiah 65:25)	