

The First Day of Creation

“And God said, ‘Let there be light, and there was light’ . . . God called the light ‘day’, and the darkness he called ‘night.’” Genesis 1:3, 5

Answer (True) or (False) to the following statements:

1. The Bible states that creation of the earth began with an explosion.
2. The Bible tells us that the earth was formed 1 billion years ago.
3. In the beginning the earth was a formless mass.
4. God planned the creation in order to provide for the needs of man.
5. The seventh creative day is 7,000 years in length.
6. The Sun began to shine on the earth on the first creative day.
7. God created the earth to travel in an orbit around the sun.
8. Through studying the Bible we can learn to understand God’s creation.

Did you recognize the THREE incorrect statements?

Write out below what the three CORRECT statements should be.

1.
.....
2.
.....
6.
.....

Insert the correct words to complete the following scripture passage.

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was..... and, was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters. And God said, “Let there be,” and there was God saw that the was good, and he separated the light from the God called the, “day,” and the he called “.....” And there was evening, and there was morning - the first day. Genesis 1:1-5